Administrator's Column

New Year's resolutions - it's that time again! It's great to determine we want the best for our children; however, that doesn't mean we keep them from experiencing and working through challenges. Overprotecting and letting them cut and run when they face opposition teaches them patterns that will be destructive in life (quit a job when they have a boss they don't like, leave their spouse instead of working through differences, etc.). Help them through challenges, but don't keep them from facing obstacles - it's part of helping them become successful adults.

Blessings,
Dr. Peggy Polson
Jeremiah 29:11

I waited patiently for the LORD;
He turned to me and heard my cry.
<sup>2</sup>He lifted me out of the slimy pit,
out of the mud and mire;
He set my feet on a rock
and gave me a firm place to stand.
<sup>3</sup>He put a new song in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear the LORD
and put their trust in Him.
Psalm 40:1-3
