Administrator's Column

Our students have been given a fabulous opportunity by being able to attend a Christian school. Of course, our children are susceptible to the ups and downs of awkward stages, doubts, questioning their beliefs, etc. Its one thing to sometimes be at odds with your peers and quite another thing to feel like none of your teachers and faculty care. That was my experience - lots of opportunities in a large public school, but no staff members cared personally, encouraged me or offered career guidance. Thank you for allowing us the opportunity to speak into all aspects of your child's life. It's well worth the investment!

*Blessings,

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. 1 Cor. 13:4-
